

Annual City of Rocks Activities

Thursday, May 16

1:00 pm City of Rocks Visitor Center

Unveiling of the paintings of City of Rocks created by artist Nicholas Lowe. These paintings were specially made in the manner of James F. Wilkins, an artist who painted his way across much of the California Trail in 1849.

A tour of the California Trail sites in the reserve may be conducted after for those who are not familiar with the sites.

7:00 pm Dinner at Morey's Steakhouse

Gathering of people at a steak and seafood restaurant on the Snake River.

Friday, May 17

9:00 am City of Rocks Visitor Center

Metal detecting on the California Trail section discovered last year in Circle Creek Canyon. This will involve a half-mile hike from the main road of the park. This kind of activity can only be done with the permission and direction of COR personnel. Any artifacts found will be tagged, bagged, and given to the City of Rocks personnel for display in the visitor center.

7:00 pm Dinner at El Caporal

Gathering of people at a Mexican restaurant and cantina.

Saturday, May 18

10:00 am Perkins Restaurant

Spring chapter meeting. This meeting is a brief business meeting with an emphasis on preservation activities and National OCTA events. After the meeting, artist Nicholas Lowe will talk about his trip painting scenes as done by James F. Wilkins. The chapter typically pays for lunch for all attendees.
